Independent Family Funeral Directors

Jepson Funerals Limited

Professional Services

£765.00

These fees include an appropriate amount to cover the cost of our overheads and provide twenty four hour telephone support to our clients at all times; provision of our fully trained staff available to make funeral arrangements to meet our clients requirements, organising the necessary documentation required for the funeral to take place and receiving and administering charitable donations on your behalf. On the day of the funeral, providing a funeral director and staff to supervise and conduct the funeral.

Transfer (anytime day or night)

£210.00

This fee is for transferring your loved one into our care. This allows for the transfer to be conducted by two members of staff within a thirty miles radius of our premises at any time during the day or night.

Care, Preparation & Respects

£210.00

These fees are to care for your loved one until the funeral takes place. This includes dressing in their own clothes or a gown of your choice provided by ourselves. Our private chapels are also available for family and friends to pay their last respects.

Hygienic Treatment

£200.00

Our hygienic treatment (embalming) gives the deceased a more restful appearance, and helps delay the natural effects of death. It is not a legal requirement, but there may be occasions when we will recommend the process for safety reasons.
